

University of Pittsburgh Integrated Neuroscience, Biology and Bioengineering Building (BST3) • Pittsburgh, PA

At A Glance

Hunt Role

*Construction Manager at Risk
Guaranteed Maximum Price*

Construction Cost

$121 million

Completion

January 2006

Client

University of Pittsburgh

Architect

Payette Associates

A 370,000 SF, 14-story biomedical research facility with a 50,000 SF vivarium imaging core with six research magnets, aquariums, environmental rooms, biological level II and III research labs, flexible casework, structural biology, functional genomics, surgical suites, two connector bridges and auditorium.

