

California State University, Long Beach Peterson Hall 3 Replacement Building • Long Beach, CA

At A Glance

Hunt Role

*Design-Build
Lump Sum Bid*

Construction Cost

$87.8 million

Scheduled Completion

May 2011

Client

The Trustees of the California State University

Architect

SmithGroup, Inc.

A 160,000 SF research and science building consisting of research labs, six lecture halls with 420 seats total, classrooms, faculty office space, storage facilities, vivarium and animal holding facilities. The space will be used by the following departments: biology, physics, sciences, education, chemistry and geology. Additional work includes the hazmat abatement and demolition of the existing Peterson Hall #3.

Building Information Modeling/ Virtual Design & Construction

- Used on the project

